

SUMMARY

Web designer and developer with experience working in small and large companies in a variety of positions, learning and applying the most effective and current technologies.

EXPERIENCE & SELECTED ACHIEVEMENTS

Dev/Iowa Bootcamp, Iowa City, IA

January - March 2014

A nine-week intensive training program designed to equip professional web developers. The program offered a hands-on learning environment that deepened my practical skill in JavaScript and jQuery and introduced me to back-end development frameworks and languages such as MySQL, AJAX, Ruby, Express and Node.js. In class, I independently developed a phone app using PhoneGap and collaborated in the creation of several web applications and projects that are available at www.deviowa.com.

MidWestOne Bank, Coralville, IA - Teller

February 2012 - August 2013

MidWestOne Bank is the oldest bank in Iowa City with 28 branches across eastern Iowa. Working as part of a small, cohesive team at the Coralville branch in a corporate environment built my understanding of the needs and practices of a larger company.

Cramer Dev, Iowa City, IA - Web Design / Front End Development Intern

July 2011 - December 2011

Cramer Dev (now FullStack) is multifaceted company that specializes in web development, responsive design, startup incubation and business consultation. In an office run on Agile framework, I expanded my knowledge of UI, UX, and responsive design by working with a team that modeled the importance of listening to the client and delivering excellent quality work. During this internship, I solidified my proficiency with HTML5 and CSS3 and used them in conjunction with Adobe CC and a text editor to build websites.

Capanna Coffee Co, Iowa City / North Liberty, IA - Creative Director and Manager

October 2006 - January 2011

Capanna Coffee is a small, local business that serves and distributes fresh roasted coffee throughout the Iowa City area. After working as a barista, roaster, and graphic design intern at Capanna during college, I became manager and creative director in February of 2009. In this position, I managed a variety of tasks on a tight schedule while maintaining communication with the owner and in-store team.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts with Honors in Studio Arts with a Graphic Design focus, 2008
University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA
